Hastings Wins in Dominating Fashion

The Lady Broncos had a very good week with two dominating wins. They finished the week with a total of 15 goals in two games. The first game of the week saw the Lady Broncos beat Mount Marty 11-1 in Yankton, SD. The scoring started early and continued throughout the match. Jesse Herse started the scoring in the 6th minute finishing a corner kick from Casey Friesen. Six minutes later, Herse got her second goal of the night with an assist from Allison Kotschwar. In the 18th minute, Shannon Buttner got involved with her 3rd goal of the year with an assist from Herse. Sara Wenzl got into the action with a goal in the 29th minute. Then, Davonne Holland owned the 45th minute. She scored two goal in one minute to make the score 6-0. Mount Marty got their lone goal also in the 45th minute. Kotschwar made it 7-1 in the 48th minute. Jessica Carlson got two goals in the 51st and 57th minute, and then the scoring finished up with goals by goalie Megan Kriefels and Wenzl's second goal of the night. The dominate win continued into the next match.

The Lady Broncos faced Dana College at home on Wednesday night. It was a very important conference match for Hastings. The girls responded with a 4-0 win. After a slow first half, the scoring started in the 49th minute when Megan Rerucha played a long pass into the Dana defense and Megan Michel finished off the pass for the first goal of the night. Michel was not done. Eleven minutes later she finished off a ball that was crossed and deflected to her that she put in the back of the goal. Then 40 seconds later Jesse Herse played a through pass to Casey Friesen that she finished for her first goal of the year. Magdalena Cortez then finished off the scoring when she connected on a 45 yard free kick that bounced over the keeper's hands.

The Lady Broncos have a very important week coming up. With the win, the Lady Broncos stay in the hunt for the conference championship. They sit in fourth place currently, just 2 points behind Dakota Wesleyan, which the Lady Broncos tied earlier in the season. The team faces a tough Dordt team on Saturday in Hastings. Dordt was picked in the preseason as the conference favorite. Then on Wednesday, the team plays at Doane.
