Lady Broncos Chosen #2 in GPAC Coaches Pre-Season Poll

The Hastings College Women's Soccer team has been selected to finish second in the Great Plains Athletic Conference (GPAC) women's soccer coaches poll after posting a 14-6-1 overall record and finishing second in the conference regular season.

Dordt tallied 138 points and nine first place votes as they came in first while Hastings was slated second with 135 points and three first place votes. Midland Lutheran received the other first place vote as they tallied 115 points.

The 2009 schedule will consist of 12 league games as once again all 13 teams will compete for the conference crown. This year the GPAC will have two automatic births to the national tournament under direct qualification. The GPAC regular season champion receives the first automatic birth. The GPAC tournament champion receives the second bid, unless it is the regular season champion. In that case, the tournament runner-up will advance to the national tournament.

The Lady Broncos will open up the season on Saturday, August 29 when they play Baker (KS) at 7 p.m. at Lloyd Wilson Field.
